

Colin Cause Network Bulletin August 2026

Dear Network confreres

Greetings from Sydney with a brief update...

Zoom sessions

Six confreres met across our two recent sessions. You will have received the summary emailed on Aug 04.

International gathering proposal

Thanks to your emailed and Zoom contributions we have been able to provide the General Council with a comprehensive summary of our 'constructive suggestions' invited by Fr General. Key features are our emphasis on both content and skill development for CCN members.

Phone app

Ben D'Souza has emailed us with a request to try out the upgraded version of the app. Let's support his fine work as best we can.

Imprints

Lauro is planning ahead for future issues, also worthy of our interest and support.

There is now a dedicated page for Imprints on the Colin website.

Br Mario

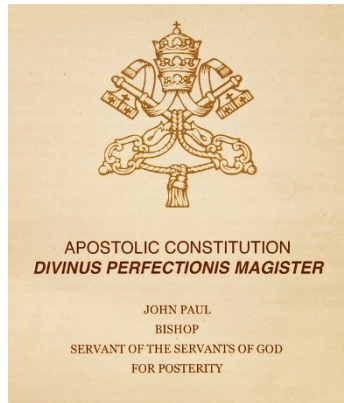

A special vote of gratitude to Mario for his contribution to the Network. By now he will have moved to his new posting in Mexico. Thank you, Mario!

Vatican protocols

Lauro has sourced Pope John Paul II's Apostolic Constitution, Divinus Perfectionis Magister, which is now on the Colin website's Cause/Writings page. It is a brief document detailing the current protocols re beatification and canonisation. I commend it for your reading.

Praying for graces

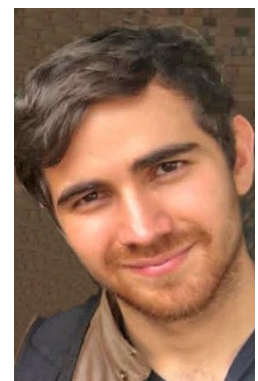

The latest request for prayers through the intercession of Fr Colin comes from Colombia. The next issue of Imprints will include this:

'In the city of Neiva, Colombia, two brothers, José and Mateo Anaya Cabrera, seek the intercession of Ven Jean-Claude Colin for the restoration of their eyesight. Both brothers suffer the affliction of advanced glaucoma.

José, 38, married and father of an infant son, after unsuccessful surgery is now legally blind because of this affliction. His younger brother, Mateo, 30, having lost peripheral vision lives in fear of impending blindness.

Both seek the grace of healing from the Lord through Fr Colin's intercession.'

Let us each be on the watch in our Units for those seeking graces.

Coming anniversaries

... and opportunities to 'spread the fama':

- Sep 12, Holy Name of Mary
- Nov 15, death of Fr Founder
