

Hannah Bennett ... an update

September 2019

Dear Confrères

Hannah Bennett

Greetings from Sydney... and thank you for your prayers for the healing of Hannah.

Hannah says:

‘Here is a quick update for you.

My health

I have been on multiple medications to control my nerve pain, however it is difficult to measure how useful they are as the severity of the pain fluctuates so often.

My 6-monthly infusion has made it difficult for me to overcome the common cold and related throat infections as it continues to suppress my immune system. I currently have little to no movement in my fingers and wrists due to spasticity and residing pain. The nerve pain in my limbs, however seems to be improving.

I am currently finding some relief through yoga classes as well as the assistance of an occupational therapist and working with an exercise physiologist.

My studies

I am studying my Masters of Speech Pathology at Macquarie University, Sydney. I am thoroughly enjoying it, although find myself struggling with fatigue as my study continues and intensifies.

Your prayers

I'm forever grateful for all your prayers and thoughts. I believe Fr. Colin will send his grace. If you have the time, I would appreciate specific prayers targeting my nerve pain, as it can be extremely debilitating.

Thank you all so much.

Best wishes,

Hannah ‘
