

Jean-Claude Colin's
Consecration to Mary

To the greater glory of God and the honour of Mary,
the most tender of mothers.

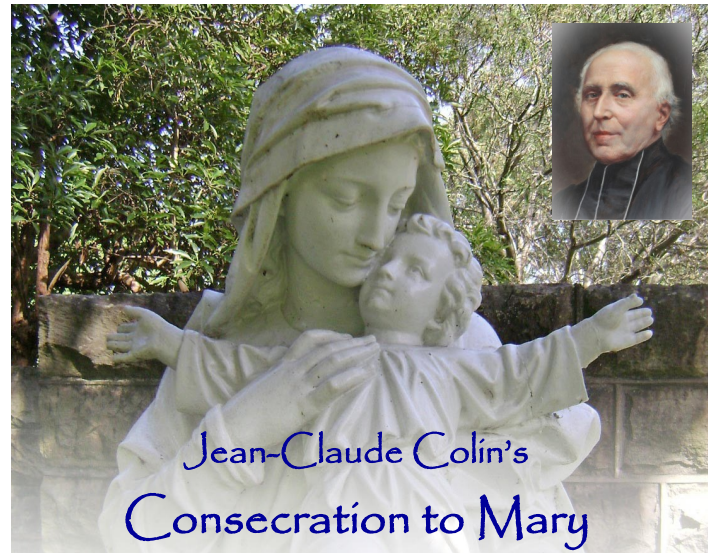

Holy Virgin I consecrate myself completely to you,
for life and for death.

I wish to merit your protection
imitating your virtues.

In your great goodness watch over every step,
every breath I will henceforth take.

May these be ways of renewing every day a consecration I would gladly sign with my blood.

And finally, Holy Virgin, with you may I die in the heart of Jesus and in yours.
